Ofelio Fanti's artwork has the qualities of the best Italian tales which are loved by many generations of people not only in Italy, but far beyond Italian borders. The qualities are harmony, natural balance, complementarity of emotions, light, positive attitude, and kindness.

The Rogatchi Foundation HELICON Award for Inspiration in Art is conducted in conjunction with Italian National Il Volo di Pegaso Arts, Literature and Music Award and in partnership with the Italian National Institute of Health, and the Pegaso dedicated team under the great leadership of the ISS director, dott. Domenica Taruscio. In the year 2021-22, The Rogatchi Foundation delivers its third Helicon Award at the ceremony of the XIV Edition of Il Volo di Pegaso Award.

Helicon Award

2021-2022 winner Ofelio Fanti, Italy.

Ofelio Fanti, 72, is a pensioner who worked for many years as an university employee at the laboratory of paediatric diseases at the University of Siena. He is a life-long devoted artist who got his inspiration from the world of fantasies, culture and literature.

In the process of awarding the HELICON Award, The Rogatchi Foundation Award Committee reviews the artworks of all artists who submit their works to Il Volo di Pegaso annual contest, including all categories of artists, and all categories of visual arts. The Committee also reviews the other art works of the HELICON Award finalists, to make the decision based on a body of work of the artists.

The HELICON Award consists of a Special HELICON Diploma and valuable artwork. In the year 2021-2022, the Award was enlarged with a luxury set of fine art mediums.

We congratulate Ofelio Fanti for his kind talent and inspiration and wishing him much success in further pursuing his uplifting and charming art.
