

Andrea Lenzi is President of the National Research Council of Italy (CNR), and Professor Emeritus of Endocrinology at the University of Rome La Sapienza. He has always combined his career as a clinical doctor with a strong institutional commitment. Past President of the Italian National University Council (CUN), he is currently President of the Italian Committee for Biosafety, Biotechnology and Sciences of Life of the Presidency of the Council of Ministers (CNBBSV).

Prof. Lenzi is a prominent figure for UNESCO Chairs in Italy, acting as Spokesperson of the Italian UNESCO Chairs Network (ReCUI) and Director of the UNESCO Chair on Education and Research for Urban Health. Author of more than 1,000 scientific publications, with over 650 peer-reviewed articles and 350 books chapters, Prof. Lenzi is listed among the Top Italian Scientists in Biomedical Sciences, boasting over 48,000 citations and an H-Index of 105